Model basis

Each projected year equals the preceding year multiplied by 1.23. Calculations retain full precision before display rounding. The 2026 amount is the management-provided baseline and is not presented as an audited full-year result. Future figures are projections, not guaranteed results.

This revenue model does not establish EBITDA, net income, margins, segment allocations or investment returns. Earlier website financial forecasts are superseded by this revenue schedule.

Consumer marketing focus

AVENSARO owns a proprietary database representing 75 million U.S. consumers. Consumer campaign opportunities span 50 product and service categories, including finance, mobile, homeowner services, healthcare, nutraceuticals and trial memberships. Database size is not an active-user or customer-served count.
